FRUIT AND FLOWERS

A TOPIARY.

Sculptured Hedges—Curiously Shaped Trees and Bushes.

Perhaps you may have been in some old fashioned garden which had one or more trees of odd shapes into which they had been cut and trained years ago. When a number of such trees are growing together the place is called a topiary, and lately people who can afford the money have been contriving topiaries in some parts of their grounds.

We read about sculptured hedges of trees in England as far back as the times of the Tudors. But it was not till the Dutch gardeners came over in the reign of William III, that it became the practice to give curious shapes to trees and shrubs scattered over gardens or brought together into a topiary. Various trees were used, but chiefly yew and box.

The Dutch were fond of making figures out of trees and so were the Italians. At Savona a traveler tells us that he saw a group representing the flight of Joseph into Egypt formed of variegated holly, box, myrtle, laurel and cypress.

All such figures need attention to keep them in order. Shrubs and trees are formed into curious shapes by the help of wires, and much trimming or twisting of the shoots is needed at first.
A young tree, therefore, representing a peacock or some other bird will cost a considerable sum. Figures of men, horses, lions, dogs and various animals, including dragons, are other objects of topiary art, as well as letters of the alphabet, triangles and bows.

One of the finest topiaries in England is in the grounds of Levens Hall, Westmoreland, and another at Elvaston Castle, Derbyshire.

Perhaps as notable as any of the topiaries in this country is that on the Hunnewell estate in Massachusetts.

AMERICAN GATEWAYS.

Picturesque Typical Structures of Massive Logs.

In suburban New York and Philadelphia substantial gateways with posts of stone are roofed with rustic work.
This is a typical form of gateway in Japan. Among the most curious of typical American gateways, fashioned after the roofed entrances of the Japanese, are those formed of rustic logs arranged in groups to form massive posts of cabin and tent-like structure says Floral Life. The famous "Daniel Boone gateway" is especially effective.
It is formed of a number of logs of graduated length set upright, like the palisaded fence built by our pioneers.

The so called "oriental gateway" of Simon Kenton" has its portal constructed after the fashion of a log cabin with the broad front doorways showing one of corresponding breadth at the back, and the driveway passing directly through the structure. The "Davy Crockett gateway" is more simple in design, being composed of single log posts—thick, heavy logs covered with rough bark—and similar logs for roofing and supporting an "old farm bell."

For a broad driveway the log constructed gate posts are set far apart, and heavy logs form the connecting gates. The crude fastening of gates to posts by quaint log hinges is typical of old time makeshifts, as well as of simple and practical oriental construction.

Notable Carnations.

Notable at the Boston exhibition of the American Carnation society was Elsa Stuss (an illustration of which is here reproduced from Gardening), the winner of the Lawson gold medal.

Mrs. C. W. Ward carried off the silver medal of the Society of American Florists and Winsome received a certificate of merit.

ROSE LEAVES

The surface of the rose bed should never be allowed to grow hard or bare, but after every rain be loosened with a forked hoe a few inches to form a dirt mulch and at the same time to keep down the weeds.

The pruning of tea roses begins about the second week in April and continues toward the end of the month.
Practically south of the Potomac and Ohio rivers tea roses are hardy, free and long lived. They make the finest ever blooming plants in nature for southern outdoor gardens.

The hybrid teas are the roses for the amateur, for from them one may cut blooms every day from June to November.

If you would have perfect roses in profusion it is imperative necessary that you feed your plants well. Nothing in the line of fertilizers suits them so well as old, thoroughly rotted cow manure—that which is black and crumbles readily.

PURE BLOOD IS VITAL

Not everyone realizes the vital necessity of keeping the blood pure at all times. Impure blood not only causes various derangements and inability to perform one's work well, but gives a ready welcome to all germs of disease with which it comes in contact. It is the rankest extravagance to allow the human blood to remain in an impure or impoverished condition.
"Our Standard Remedy" is the safest, purest and best blood purifier on the market to-day. It is a new remedy, a purely vegetable preparation composed of roots, barks and herbs, and contains no calomel or other injurious or metallic drug. 204 doses for $1, with a High School Bonds

As the question of voting bonds for a high school building is before the people, a few facts and figures may be of interest. In this age it is hardly necessary to argue the value of a high school training. The rapid growth of high schools in the State of California shows the tendency of the age. The following figures are taken from the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The number of public high schools in the state in 1885 was 12; in 1890, 24; in 1900, 120; in 1905, 178. Perhaps an even more striking progress is shown by the county of Los Angeles which had, according to Heath's Directory of Secondary Schools, 15 high schools in 1902 and 27 in 1905, an increase of 12 in three years.

Of the 178 high schools in the state 98 were accredited at the State University last year. In 1903 the state, realizing the value of the high school to the rural community as well as to the city, and wishing to encourage the establishing of such schools, passed a law levying a tax upon all the property of the state, and dividing the proceeds among the high schools. These facts require no comment.

Now a few facts regarding our own school. To keep pace with the advance in education it has been necessary to increase the equipment and teaching force, with a consequent increase of expense. However, there is a recompense. A recent report from the University of California places our school upon the accredited list, so that our graduates may enter the University without examination. It may be added, also, that the rate of taxation for the support of the school during the past year is less than that for any other high school in the county. According to the report of the County Assessor, the tax levied for the Sonoma Valley Union High School was 15 cents on $100, while the next lowest was 23 cents on $100. In short the cost of maintaining our high school has been a third less than that of the next lowest in the county, and it may be added, among the lowest in the state.

Now if we add to the 15 cents above mentioned the two and one half cents necessary for carrying and paying off the bonds we shall still have a rate more than 5 cents lower than any other high school in the county.

Fourth of July Celebration

The Woman's Improvement Club of Glen Ellen has arranged for a celebration on the Fourth of July. It will take the form of a basket picnic. Ice cream, lemonade and coffee will be sold. The exercises will be held in Social Hall which has been enlarged, and will be used for dancing after the address which Judge A. G. Burnett has so kindly promised to deliver. The public are invited. No fireworks allowed on the grounds.

Grand Independence Ball

Sonoma Parlor, N. S. G. W., has planned to give one of the finest balls ever given in Sonoma on Fourth of July evening. Nothing will be spared to make the event the most complete and enjoyable one that has ever been given here.

Weaver Patent Power and Pump Co.

Articles of incorporation of the Weaver Patent Power & Pump Co. have been filed with the County Clerk of Sonoma Co., and with the Secretary of the State of California.

Wednesday evening Secretary W. O. Hocker of the company, received the charter of the new corporation, authorizing it to do business in this state. The shares of stock in the company are being rapidly taken up and many of the first subscribers have doubled their original subscription.

Already the company has received inquiries for the wonderful new pump and all indications point to a continued rush of work as soon as the plant is started.

An experienced and expert mechanic stated he had examined Mr. Weaver's patent and that it was the most complete and perfect piece of useful machinery he had ever seen or heard of and forthwith subscribed for 50 shares of stock. Those who are seeking a fine investment can find no better one anywhere than to secure a few shares in this home company that will commence the building of these wonderful pumps and place them on the market. There are now about 60 shareholders, all of whom are enthusiastic over the prospects of doing a fine business.

Shares of stock may be secured while they last by applying to W. O. Hocker, Secretary, or M. J. Hibbard.

Life on the Rolling Wave

A number of Sonoma young people enjoyed a beautiful launch ride to Vallejo last Sunday on Capt. Cutter's launch, taking in Mare Island and every place of interest in that vicinity. The party was composed of: Misses Cordelia Thompson, Byrd, Moody, Lucy Thompson, Hazel Gies, Maria Rebholz and Messrs Ed Morris, Clarence Cheney, Jack Gottenberg, Neil Trudgen, Jack Knight and Roy Pauli.

Beautiful trimmed hats, ready to wear hat and hat shapes at G. H. Hotz.

DEL CARLO IN TROUBLE AGAIN

F. Del Carlo, the man who was accused of setting fire to L. Quararoli's barn some months ago in Sonoma, is in trouble again. This time the evidence against him is said to be strong and that if captured he will very probably be sent back to San Quentin to serve out another term.

He is accused of breaking into the Enterprise saloon on 3rd st. in Santa Rosa and of taking therefrom a quantity of cigars, liquors and other valuables. The Sheriff is on his trail and he will no doubt be caught soon.

Dislocated his Knee-cap

Jack Bannon, who appeared in Sonoma, in connection with Harry Bernard's Vandeville show, had the misfortune to hurt his knee-cap while doing an acrobatic stunt in San Francisco recently. As a result of the mishap he is now using a cane to aid him in locomotion.

SAFE FOR FIFTY YEARS

San Francisco, June 18.—After an exhaustive investigation and the knowledge gained during the twenty years he has occupied the Chair of Seismology at the Imperial University in Japan, Dr. P. Omori this afternoon stated that there was no danger of an earthquake of the magnitude of that of April 18 last, occurring for 50 years. He says the present generation need have no fear.

Dr. Omori reports that the recent earthquake was very remarkable for the area covered by its violence. He reiterated his statement on former occasions that the light earthquakes will continue from time to time for possibly a year and a half. After that they will hardly be perceptible.

Enemies of progress and enlightenment will array themselves against the continuance of the high school. Thank God, Sonoma valley has but a few of such.

A HANDSOME BEQUEST

The largest single gift or inheritance ever received by the University of California is the estate of Mr. M. Theo. Kearney, late of Fresno, who has bequeathed his entire property to the University, suggesting in his will the establishment of the "Kearney Agricultural Experimental Station," as an adjunct of the Department of Agriculture of the University.

Mr. Kearney's magnificent bequest consists for the most part of land. He made his home on the "Fruit Vale estate," near Fresno, a ranch of some fifty-four hundred acres. There are 3,000 acres in alfalfa, 1,200 acres of vineyard, hundreds of acres in citrus and deciduous fruit trees of many varieties, ornamental grounds of more than 200 acres in extent, containing a wonderful variety of trees, shrubs and flowers, a fine adobe dwelling which cost $20,000, and a very complete equipment of excellent packing houses, shops, stables, poultry yards, and other farm buildings and appurtenances. The value of the bequest is probably between $800,000 and $900,000.

Mr. Kearney died in May, while on his way to Europe. His beneficent purposes have been unknown not only to the community but to the University as well.

Launch and Live Lion

It has been said that there is not the remotest corner of the inlet of the minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelike from the convulsions occasioned by good hearty laughter. The life principle of the central man is shaken to its innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein. The blood moves more rapidly and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing from that person indulges tends to lengthen his life, conveying as it does new and distinct stimulus to the vital forces.

Starboard and Port

Why do the sailors call the right hand side of the ship "starboard" and the left hand "port"? For the answer of the Norsemen and Saxons. In the viking ships the warriors hung the "borders," or shields, on the side of the ship above the places for their oars. The viking himself held the steer oar, which was fastened to the right hand side of the stern. Thus the right hand side of the ship became known as the steer side, and as the borders of the warriors were hung there it was called the "steerboard," or starboard side, while the lower, or larking side, became the landward. Bord eventually became corrupted into port.

Picnic at Graham's Canyon

Mr. Bosworth entertained a number of the young people of Sonoma to a picnic in Graham's Canyon on Tuesday. The two Union Livestock Stable busses were well filled and the ride to the picnic grounds was much enjoyed.

Mr. Bosworth spared no expense to make the affair a very enjoyable event. Ice cream and other cooling and refreshing delicacies were bountifully supplied and the dinner was all that could be desired for such an occasion. The youngsters were loud in their praises for the hospitable way in which they were entertained throughout the day.
